

E90 Head Lamp Instruction:

1. There have two cover on the head lamp, one is for manual, and the other one is for automative that is Europe type. So, you just choose the automotive cover for use only.

2. Please take out the stick form manual one that may use for automtive cover.

3. Please find there have one white socket on the head lamp. After you find the white socket, please connect the stick and the socket together.

4. Please find the wire from the original one and connect with the white connector that on the picture. After you connect the connector, everything is OK and Finish ~~